ELOA 2014 CONFERENCE

INNOVATIONS IN OLDER ADULT LEARNING: theory, research, policy

22 - 24 OCTOBER 2014
UNIVERSITY OF MALTA VALLETTA CAMPUS

Who should attend?
Stakeholders, academics, and practitioners from universities, public and private organizations, civil society and public bodies, involved or interested in education, learning and training of mature and older adults, are welcome to attend.

Speakers:

PROF. CARMEL BORG,
University of Malta, Malta
Radical ageing in neo-liberal times: Transformative late-life learning in action

PROF. JOHN FIELD,
University of Stirling, United Kingdom
Supporting older adult learning: Policies and principles

PROF. BRIAN FINDSEN,
University of Waikato, New Zealand
Learning in later life: Perspectives from Aotearoa/New Zealand

PROF. BARRY GOLDING,
Federation University, Australia
Men learning later in life

PROF. SABINA JELENČ KRAŠOVEC,
University of Ljubjana, Slovenia
Older adults learning in different ‘social learning spaces’ in the community

PROF. MALCOLM JOHNSON,
University of Bath, United Kingdom
Learning for living with finitude: Spirituality and self knowledge in old age

For further information contact Dr Marvin Formosa
t: +356 2340 3103 | e: marvin.formosa@um.edu.mt
w: www.um.edu.mt/events/eloa2014